Re: Notice of Appeal – Ontario Regulation 296/19

The Tribunal acknowledges receipt of the above referenced appeal. The Tribunal has reviewed this file to determine whether it is subject to Ontario Regulation 296/19 made under the Planning Act ("Act"). This Regulation sets out general rules relating to the transition of proceedings following the amendments to the Act which took effect on September 3, 2019. The Tribunal has identified your appeal as subject to the opportunity to provide a new notice of appeal, as set out in this Regulation.

The Tribunal is hereby notifying you, the appellant, that you have the opportunity to provide a new notice of appeal in accordance with the notice of appeal provisions in the Act as it reads on and after September 3, 2019. If you choose to file a new notice of appeal, your notice of appeal must be filed directly with the Tribunal within 20 days of the date of this letter.

Please note that this Regulation states that if the Tribunal does not receive a new notice of appeal within the 20-day period referred to above, then the appeal will proceed based on the notice of appeal that was filed in accordance with the Act as it read before September 3, 2019.

If you so choose to file a new notice of appeal, it must be submitted in hardcopy format and must also be emailed to the assigned Case Coordinator, Nazma.Ramjaun@ontario.ca, and the approval authority. The case number and/or file number must also be quoted.

Please note that no appeal fee is required to accompany the new notice of appeal. Similarly, no new appeal form need be filed with the Tribunal or the approval authority. However, please note the content of the new notice of appeal, as mentioned above, may address the appeal provisions in the Act as it now reads.

Yours truly,

Mary Ann Hunwicks
Registrar
